Teaching the Holocaust 20, 21 and 22 August 2012

An intensive three day programme for teachers that addresses the complex subject of the Holocaust and how to teach it in the classroom. Lecturers, interactive seminars, workshops, materials and resources presented by expert Holocaust educators.

Topics include: Historical context of the Holocaust, pedagogic challenges, cross curriculum perspectives, and inter-disciplinary approaches. The course also considers the roles of perpetrators, bystanders, victims, and rescuers.

Certificate in Holocaust Education August 2012 – August 2013

The certificate provides tuition on the historical significance and contemporary resonance of the Holocaust. The programme provides participants with information, tools and skills to address this subject in their areas of work, and to develop pedagogic expertise to complement their knowledge. The programme is divided into four modules. This course is offered in association with The Herzog Centre, Trinity College Dublin.

Irish Seminar at Yad Vashem International School, Jerusalem, Israel July 2012

An eight day programme for teachers at Yad Vashem International School for Holocaust Studies. This course is specifically tailored for Irish teachers providing an in-depth exposure to the many facets of the Holocaust. Working at the exceptional Holocaust Museum and Archives Centre, participants can avail of resources, expertise and personal testimonies.
